ARTS FEST BEVERLY 2007 FEATURED ARTIST

RADIANT DESIGN RECENT PAINTINGS BY JAMES FALCK

May 31 – June 25
Reception: Friday, June 8, 6–8 p.m.

Schlosberg Alumni Gallery
Montserrat College of Art
23 Essex St., Beverly, MA

Working in a style reminiscent of Stuart Davis and John Marin, Jim Falck paints every day, completing small watercolors in a single sitting. The work varies from brightly colored landscapes depicting Italian hillsides to still lifes to abstractions, often painted from memory.

A native of North Dakota, Falck began his career as an architect, practicing in Denver, Houston, Flagstaff and Phoenix. He moved to Boston in 1966, where he first worked at The Architects' Collaborative in Cambridge, which was founded by Walter Gropius. His career progressed to urban design, working for the Redevelopment Authority, and then to urban landscape design, working for the Metropolitan District Commission.

Resigning as an urban designer in 1988, Falck entered Montserrat College of Art in 1989 and graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Painting in 1991. In addition, he studied with Tim Nichols at the Boston Museum School.
